REPORT ON FILM AND VISUAL MEDIA

The Film and Visual Media Club of Queen Mary's College was the seed sown out of love for films and visual arts from India and all around the world. Creator behind this club Dr. Maria Preethi Srinivasan entrusted her vision to inculcate a sense of watching films and create a community of students, film maker and, film lovers. The club organizes meaningful activities and events, such as showings of movies and collaborating with organizations for students to be able to have an excellent journey through visual media. As part its annual event the club in collaboration with SPIC MACAY – an organization known for its incredible determination to promote Indian art and support the artist behind such creativity- voluntary movement, hosted the Rendezvous Series of Cinema Classics on 26th November. As part to screening movies from around the world, the club members was delighted to watch the French Movie with English subtitle, La Passion de Jeanne d'Arc (The Passion of Joan Of Arc) a 1928 French silent historical film based on actual record of the trail of Joan of Arc. The film captures the moments that Joan of Arc was a captive of England, depicting her and trial and execution. Following the screening was the discussion with Shikha Jhingan, Academician, JNU, Delhi. The link bit.ly/smcinemaclassic was provided to the club members to join this programme. The club members were able to witness a classic movie from real to reel narration enhanced their appreciation of classical movies and its story telling process. It had a positive impact on the members who developed a sense of appreciation for classical movies.
