

Department of Biochemistry
Annual Report 2024-2025

A seminar on the topic of Invisible Battle-Invading Pathogens Against Immune Response in the Department of Biochemistry was held on 29/01/25. Dr. M. Sujatha, Associate Professor and Dean, Ethiraj College, delivered the speech

This year, Dr. P. Sumathi, Associate Professor, Department of Biochemistry, is completing his tenure.

In the Scrabble Tournament organized by Queen Mary College, the third year students of this department,

M. Divyasree - Second Prize and

M. Lithika - Seventh Prize were won by

In the Alfred Budds Scrabble Tournament, the third year student M. Lithika won the tenth prize

In the Speech Competition organized by State Science Conference - Science Club, V. Brinda, a third year student, won the first prize

In the poster making competition, third year student V. Renuka Devi won the third prize

At QMC Festa 2025

In the mehndi competition, first year students V. Renuka Devi and K. Sivaranjini won the third prize

In the solo singing competition, first year student Shwetha won the second prize

Science test held at the college store - Science Energy - 2024 held at Stella Maris College

In the competition held under the title Best Out of Waste, third year student M. Gomathi won the second prize

In the competition held under the title Symphony with Science, third year students K. Fauziya and N. ishwarya Sen won the second prize

In the competition held under the title Med codify Hackathon organized by 3470 Health Care Private Limited and Naan Mulhuvan, third year student M. Lisawardini bagged the third prize

T. Pooja bagged the third prize and P. Swetha bagged the fifth prize in the Science Quiz competition organized by the Science Club

M. Gomathi, a third year student of the Department of Biochemistry, bagged the best student award at the Life Sciences Award Ceremony for the Chennai Degree organized by the Biotechnology and MicroBiology Society, India

