

QUEEN MARY'S COLLEGE(A)

CHENNAI - 04

PG DEPARTMENT OF COMPUTER APPLICATIONS

PG Department of Computer Applications staffs and students conducted an extension activity for SSL school students inside our college campus on 13.02.2024. Various awareness programmes like educational, health, usage of computer systems and mobile phones. The students were taught tamil poems also.

The students educated the school kids with various forms like drama, singing, chart works and conducted quiz to cheer up the school kids to learn. The following are the activities were conducted during the program.

- ❖ Educated about basic parts of the computer by displaying charts.
- ❖ Impact of using mobile phones for longer time which affects the eye sights.
- ❖ How to use laptops and various operations and uses of laptop.
- ❖ By singing of Tamil poems Bharathiyar song and Aathichudi.
- ❖ Performed a drama to create awareness of taking devoting tablets for tooth and stomach related problems due to eating too much of chocolates and junk foods.
- ❖ Usage of internet and the mobile applications for various educational sites.

Instructing the school kids about basic computer parts

Conducting quiz to enthusing the school kids to learn

Teaching them Tamil poem like Bharathiyar song & Aathichudi

Teaching them the usage of internet and mobile applications