

Field Trip

The III B A students are studying Journalism as an elective in their VI semester. They were taken on an industrial visit to the New Indian Express office located at Ambattur on the 20 th of March to have hands-on experience of the process involved in the printing of a newspaper.