

A part of our academic curriculum, our group of students had the privilege of visiting the Institute of Mental Health (IMH), KILPAUK CHENNAI. The focus of this visit includes to gain insights into the operations and services provided by a mental health institution. To observe the practical aspects of patient care rehabilitation and therapy